PROGRAM SUMMARY:
Putting your Money to work for you: During this 6 week 4-H SPIN Club youth will have the chance to learn about how they can make their money work the most of them. Youth will learn about budgeting, saving, investing, learning about credit and debt, selecting financial institutions, writing checks and working with checking accounts, setting SMART goals, and identifying needs versus wants all through hands on activities. In addition, children’s literature will be infused into each week to help to teach concepts about money.

COST:
- $5 for 4-H members
- $25 for non-4-H members ($20 4-H participation fee to join 4-H; scholarships are available, plus $5 series fee)

HOW TO SIGN UP:
RSVP your spot by contacting the Eaton County MSU Extension office with the parent name, youth name and age, and a phone number and email address. On the first day of class, parents will need to submit payment via cash or check and enroll in the 4-H Online database before the class starts (plan to come early between 4 pm and 4:30 pm).
