June

Congratulations

The 4-H summer season has started off strong. First off a big congratulations to our 4-H members graduating this year. May they look back on their time in 4-H with fondness and carry forward the skills they learned.

Also a big congratulations to all our scholarship winners both Brandon Hoag and Laken Shell are the recipients of this years Kenneth J Dubiel scholarship. Allyson Conley and Anastasia Shears are both the recipients of the 4-H scholarship. Congratulations to all our winners.

Lastly the Youth Fair forms are due to the fair office by June 14th at 4:30pm. If you do not have that paperwork in by this date you will not be allowed to exhibit in this fair year.

Gaining new ideas for teaching kids about money
Teaching kids about money can be done in a fun and educational way using these ideas.

May 8, 2017 | Beverly Przystas | Instead of just handing youth some money to spend, share with them some fun and educational ideas to think about. Teaching youth about money can be an important life lesson from the very beginning. Kids probably see money every day—grocery shopping, expenses for the house, filling up the car with gas or getting oil changes, and purchasing a new pair of shoes or clothes for school. Kids need to be given a good, solid foundation on money basics to help them understand money does not just grow on trees. Read more.
