Leadership Gladwin County provides an opportunity to enhance leadership skills for individual growth, organizational effectiveness and community development.
Leadership Gladwin County 2014-2015

Leadership Gladwin County program participants attended programs in the areas of Self Awareness, Community Awareness, Community Organizations, Education, Law, Understanding Local Government, Economic Development, Arts, Tourism and Recreation.

“Everybody does have a Leader inside”
— Robert Reich, former Secretary of Labor

The positive feedback obtained from the Leadership Gladwin County program participants is listed in the following quotes:

“The Gladwin County Leadership program has repeatedly demonstrated the innovative people and assets, ready and available in the Gladwin community.”

“This class should be the first step for anyone seeking public office at the township, city, county, and even the state level.”

“The program prepares participants to be better citizens and leaders by educating them on community awareness, developing leadership skills and motivating participants to be actively involved in the community. It has inspired me to become more engaged in activities that will serve the community.”

“I was able to improve my own leadership skills, as well as meet and connect with other individuals who care so much about this county. I would highly recommend this program to anyone who wants to take a leadership role.”

“Even as a native of Gladwin County I never fully understood the depth or our community until I participated in the Leadership Program.”

“Thank you, Gladwin County Leadership. I was pleasantly surprised by the diversity that exists in Gladwin County along with the strong sense of community.”
