The Dog Master Level focuses on independent, individualized study. The 4-H member will:

- Complete a Dog Record Book for each dog the member is showing.
- Give a demonstration or lesson, mentor a new member or work at or enter a non-4H dog show.

1. Give a Demonstration. This demonstration on a dog science related area may be presented to your club, another club, school, FFA, scouts, etc. The demonstration must be between 12 and 15 minutes in length, be thorough in content, accurate and create viewer interest in the subject. The demonstration must be accompanied by a written report and/or a poster with photographs or illustrations. The written report will be included in your notebook along with a Dog 4H Demonstration Comment Sheet. This comment sheet is to be filled out by the adult leader or teacher of the group you addressed.

OR:

3. Teach a Lesson. This lesson must be given to a group of 3 or more. This lesson may be taught to your club, another club, school, FFA, scouts, etc. The lesson may be on: showmanship, obedience, rally, agility, grooming or any other dog related subject. The lesson must be accompanied by a lesson plan and/or a poster with photographs or illustrations. The lesson plan will be included in your notebook along with a Dog 4H Lesson Comment Sheet. This comment sheet is to be filled out by the adult leader or teacher of the group you addressed.

OR:

4. Mentor a new member. You may choose to mentor an Explorer or first year member. Document your mentoring experience with a written report and photographic record. Both will be included in your notebook.

OR:

5. Work at, or, enter a non-4H dog show. You do not need a purebred dog to enter an AKC or UKC performance event. Enter and show your dog in an Agility, Rally or Obedience trial, CGC test or, participate in a hunt test. Pure bred, registered dogs may be entered in conformation and Jr. Handling. Volunteer to work at an AKC or UKC dog show or performance event. Record your activity with a written report and photographs to be included in your notebook.
