Here is some additional information to help participants at our horse shows!
• As you register for classes, please show current negative Coggins results as required by state law.
• Horse and riders age are figured as of January 1st, 2017. Points accumulate on one horse/one rider unit.
• Youth 4-H members must use their back number assigned by their leader to accumulate points.
• Spotters (14 years and older) should be present in the ring during the Cloverbud classes.
• Classes may be combined depending on number of participants.
• Judges decisions are final. All 4-H rules apply.
• All patterns will be posted outside of concession stand on board.
• Approved SEI helmets must be worn by all participants in English and Gymkhana classes.

Box stalls are available for $10.00 per day, and MUST BE CLEANED PRIOR TO LEAVING.

A $10 fee will be assessed to anyone who leaves a stall dirty! Please use manure pit next to stalls.

Camping sites are available for $15.00 per night. Please pay before you plug in.

Horses ARE NOT ALLOWED TO BE IN THE CAMPING AREA.

All participants are expected to clean up after their horses. This includes common areas like near bleachers and outside of the arena waiting to enter. Also all hay and manure must be cleaned around horse trailers.

Please do not park on asphalt.

Stallions may be shown only by adults 20 and over.

Indoor arena is available in case of inclement weather. (exception - Gymkhana)

Concessions are available at most shows. No alcohol is allowed at 4-H sponsored events.

4-H Leaders, 4-H Clubs, and the Huron Community Fair Association are not responsible for loss or damage to persons, horses or personal property. Please help us keep safety a high priority.
