Informed Consent

Thank you for attending our meeting today. We are going to present some information and give you some materials that we believe will help you make smart decisions about health insurance. Both during the workshop and at the end of the workshop, we have some research questions we would like to ask you to help us. We are teaching with new materials today and we are asking you to help us improve our teaching. We are also asking for permission to collect some information from you. This information is for the research part of our workshop.

Your participation in this research is completely voluntary. You may choose not to take part at all or answer certain questions. If you decide to participate in this research, you may stop participating at any time. If you do not want to participate in the research, you can still be part of the workshop.

All of your responses are confidential and will not contain information that may personally identify you. If we write a report or article about this research project, the data will be reported without identifying you.

There are no known risks associated with participating in this research project. You all have been given clickers to respond to the question during the workshop that we will display via PowerPoint. At the end of the workshop, we have a very short survey to get your opinion about the workshop material.

If you are willing, please click on “I Agree to Participate.” Otherwise, click on “I do not wish to participate in this research.”