Junior Leaders exist within most 4-H Clubs naturally and should be given responsibility within the club as they are able. Junior Leaders should be encouraged to keep records that will help them keep track of the leadership experiences they have had. The junior leadership Project report can be used as a guide for what records will be needed.

Junior Leaders are eligible to exhibit their Junior Leadership Project Report at the fair by the age of 13. Reports are to be kept and exhibited in a Notebook with a new report being added each year showing new leadership experiences.

Possible Junior Leader Experiences with guidance as needed:
Lead Pledges       Lead a Song       Invite Others
Help Others        Help Younger Members  Lead A Game
Hold Office        Notify Members of meetings, activities, or changes.

Plan a club meeting, party, social event, club trip, fund raiser, club in a parade, community service event, etc.

Demonstrate how to do something to your own or other clubs, 4-H Council, other organization, fair, etc.
