Time To Re-Enroll For the New 4-H Program Year!

Behind the scenes, many clubs are once again preparing for their first meetings of the year. A list of clubs is always available at 4-H online and appears in the yellow box below. All clubs are volunteer led, so our list constantly grows as new volunteers step forward. Thank you to all of our volunteers who continue to give their time to Missaukee's youth!

Once families have found a club to join, youth will need to enroll through 4-H Online at https://mi.4honline.com. You may do this now at home, or wait until your first club meeting. As you complete this form, be sure to register with an email address you regularly check. Your email box is where we will send information on new clubs, workshops, scholarships and activities. (Be sure our emails aren't going to your spam box!) Our programs are open to youth ages 5-19 (as of 1/1/2018). After enrolling, youth pay a $20 participation fee to register for the year.

The $20 participation fee is good for the entire 4-H year from now until August 31st. Youth can participate in other clubs, but participations fees are only paid once. Fees for families with more than 3 youth are capped at $60. Check with your club leader before paying. A few clubs may be paying participation fees on their members' behalf. We accept cash or checks (made out to MSU). Families are welcome to mail the fee off to our office or turn it in to your new 4-H leader at your first meeting.

We will not allow fees to be a barrier to participation. Scholarship forms to cover this fee are available from the 4-H office or your club leader. The Missaukee 4-H Advisory Board is prepared to provide scholarships for families in need. These small fees help cover national background checks for leaders and insurance to cover youth engaged in 4-H programming. Let us know if you have any questions. Welcome to 4-H!

Sincerely,
Laura Quist

New 4-H Science Blast activity released

A new 4-H Science Blast activity is now available! This resource is designed to help leaders show youth how to make and place “track traps” to capture animal tracks for identification. Youth return in one to two days to the trapping area to check for the presence of animals by looking for tracks and other signs such as markings left by wings or tails. Participants take note of their findings and a discussion of animal adaptations and habitats follows.

The lesson plan is designed for 4-H’ers 8 to 12 years of age. From the activity, they will develop many life skills including problem solving, critical thinking and learning to learn. Visit http://msue.anr.msu.edu/resources/4_h_science_blast_activities to download this and other 4-H Science Blast lesson plans.

New lesson plans include:

- Healthy as a Horse – Investigating Impaction Colic
- Where Is All The Water?
- Track Traps & Habits

2017 State Award winners with their plaques at 4-H Exploration Days.

Michigan 4-H true leaders ages 11 and older have an opportunity to be recognized for the great work they do in 4-H by completing a state award application. A Michigan 4-H State Award is the highest honor bestowed on a Michigan 4-H member and provides an opportunity to receive recognition for their engagement in rich learning experiences that result in outstanding knowledge and life-skill development.

State award applications are divided into four categories: Mark of Excellence essay contest (11-12 years old), junior state award (13-15 years old), senior state award (16-19 years old) and group awards (13-19 years old). The application process and selection is determined by the age of the 4-H member. Final candidates for the junior, senior and group level awards in each project area will be selected to participate in the State Awards program during 4-H Exploration Days in June where final selection and announcement of winners will take place.

The application can be found at http://bit.ly/2xWk3VO and is due Feb. 1, 2018. For more information, contact Betty Jo Krosnicki at nashbett@anr.msu.edu.

Missaukee Family Participates in States’ 4-H International Exchange Program (and why you should, too) by Dereck Kamphouse, 4-H member

Hello, my name is Dereck Kamphouse, and I am a middle school student at McBain Rural Agricultural School. This past summer I took part in a 4-H International Exchange Program. This is a program in which you host youth (ages 12-16 years old) from Japan, Costa Rica, Finland, Norway, or South Korea to come and stay with you for a month and act as a brother or sister. I was the host brother of a boy from Japan named Minami Hadano. We first met in person at the matching ceremony where you and your new brother or sister are brought together at Michigan State University.

During the month that he was with me we did many things despite the fact that he spoke very little English. The language barrier was easy to break because I could go on Google Translate. While he was with us we travelled to Mackinac Island. We went to the Missaukee Youth Show where I show a pig and rabbits every year and he got to meet many of my friends and look at the animals. He also went to football camp with me and was able to practice with the team, even though it was a sport he had never before played. Minami turned out to be the fastest person there, running a 5 second 40 yard dash. There were so many other activities that kept us busy while he was here. We went kayaking, fishing, watched the Detroit Tigers, played with my dog Daisy, and watched movies. However, I think the thing that he enjoyed the most was just spending time with me and the rest of my family playing sports, games, and doing some of the things that he brought with him from Japan, like his origami and games.

My favorite thing about having him here was that I got to know him very well and I got a new friend out of the program. The exchange program is definitely something that I will take part in again next year because of all the experiences and relationships that come with it. Minami and I continue to write to each other. He is a close friend, even though he is on the other side of the world. I hope to someday visit him in Japan.

4-H is prevalent across the world through programs like International Youth Exchange. Learn how you can become involved in hosting a summer or year-round exchange student from D’Ann Rohrer at drohrer@anr.msu.edu or 231-845-3361.
