Horse Judging Team Participants Needed!

Have you ever wondered what the judge is looking for? Or maybe you would like to look at a horse and know its conformational strengths and weaknesses?

Participating on the Horse Judging Team is a great way to learn how to indentifying the confirmation and performance qualities to look for in our horses.

The Livingston County Team will learn how to evaluate horses by breed and show standards, place a class and compose oral reasons for their placings. The team will then compete in the State 4-H Horse Judging Contest on April 18, 2015 in Lansing.

This is a fun and educational experience that will strongly enhance your equine knowledge and perception of the show ring.

You do not have to own a horse or have prior showing experience to participate.

Practice Information:

Wednesday Evenings at 6:30 p.m.
Livingston County Extension Office.
(2300 E Grand River Ave, Suite 111, Howell, MI 48843)

Some dates and times may vary when practices take place at a horse farm or show.

The first practice will take place on Wednesday, December 3.

Come learn what the Horse Judging Team is all about.

All participants who would like to be on the team must commit by Wednesday, December 17.

To join the team or to receive more information contact Jenna Huskinson at (810) 569-0599 or by email at jennahuskinson@gmail.com.

MSU in an affirmative-action, equal-opportunity employer. Michigan State University Extension programs and materials are open to all without regard to race, color, national origin, gender, gender identity, religion, age, height, weight, disability, political beliefs, sexual orientation, marital status, family status or veteran status.