Horse Judging Team Participants Needed!
Have you ever wondered what the judge is looking for?
Or maybe you would like to look at a horse and know its conformational strengths and weaknesses?

Participating on the Horse Judging Team is a great way to learn how to identify the confirmation and performance qualities to look for in our horses.

The Livingston County Team will learn how to evaluate horses by breed and show standards, place a class and compose oral reasons for their placings.

This is a fun and educational experience that will strongly enhance your equine knowledge and perception of the show ring.

You do NOT have to own a horse or have prior showing experience to participate.

Information Meeting:

Wednesday, October 19th at 7:30 – 8:30 p.m.
Livingston County Extension Office.
(2300 E Grand River Ave, Suite 111, Howell, MI 48843)

Additional practice dates will be scheduled based on team availability.

Come learn what the Horse Judging Team is all about!
