WAYNE AND SUZANNE LENNARD MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

The Wayne and Suzanne Lennard Memorial Scholarship was established to preserve their memories and to benefit a young person. Mr. and Mrs. Lennard died in early 2002, only 40 days apart, after a marriage of over 59 years. They were both actively involved in the founding, development, operation, and management of one of the largest potato chip and seed farms in the State of Michigan. Both were actively involved in the farm right up to their deaths. They devoted their entire lives to agriculture. This scholarship has been created to assist young people to pursue an education in agriculture and permit them to make contributions to agriculture, much like the Lennard’s did.
