MSU report: 4-H Summer camp July 7-8 for ages 9-13. $45 for 4-h members. $55 for non-4-h members
Cloverbuds is July 14-15 for ages 5-8  $30 for 4-h members. $40 for non-4-h members.

Leaders need to go on-line to check on their members and volunteers. Please check that they are in the correct categories and the number of years that they have been in each category.

Jessica will send out a copy of the market record books to the leaders. There is a beginner, intermediate, and senior market book.

PQA class is on May 19th at the Lions building at the Harrison Fairgrounds. This is the only class we know of in the area.
You could take the class on-line if you can’t make it to the class.

Jessica is going to be at the Gladwin Farmers market on May 16th from 9:00-1:00 to talk to people about 4-H. She would like 4-H members to come also to talk to the people and answer questions.

We discussed some of the swine registration pictures. We can not read the number in some of the photos. These pictures will need to be re-done and back in the office by Friday May 15th. Those people will be notified by their leader or the office.

Photography committee has a letter to send out to ask for bids for the auction pictures. We have 4 photographers to send them out to.

Concession stand: We need workers for the Rodeo weekend concession stand. We work Friday, Saturday, and Sunday. The money is to pay for the livestock buyer’s banners. There will be a sign up sheet at the extension office.

Fair updates. July 17th is the due date for the paper fair enrollment. July 22nd is the online due date for the fair enrollment. Go to the fair website and click on the "Blue Ribbon".
The fairgrounds is working on getting wi-fi throughout the fairgrounds.

Stockman Contest: Joannie made motion to pay $150 to Wes and Cindi Alexander for prizes for the stockman contest at the fair.
2nd by Melissa M. Passed.
