This SPIN club is intended to introduce youth to the 4-H entrepreneurship project. Activities will focus on developing entrepreneurial thinking, supporting youth business planning, and teaching business etiquette. We will also talk about incorporating an entrepreneurship component into the projects that you are already learning.

Please register to participate in this training series by Friday, January 27th at: https://events.anr.msu.edu/SanilacEntrepreneurship/

If you have questions about the training or registration contact Betty Jo Krosnicki at nashbett@msu.edu or 810-648-2515.
