Restrictions on Zoning Authority

This publication summarizes the state and federal limitations on zoning in Michigan. Local governments receive power, including authorization for planning and zoning, from the state. The authority to adopt and enforce zoning is granted to local governments through the zoning enabling acts. When authority is granted to a local government, it often comes with strings attached which may require the task to be done a certain way or within certain limitations. In addition, various court cases, other state statutes and the federal code often limit what local governments can do with zoning.

Limits placed on zoning can change. Always check back to web site lu.msue.msu.edu to insure use of the most recent version of this publication. This document attempts to outline restrictions on zoning as they currently exist. Limitations described here are categorized as outlined below. For the limitations on zoning listed here, detailed footnotes are included to help the reader find the source of the limitation.

This list, starting on the next page, is divided into the following categories:

2. Outright Preemption (page 2).
3. Preemption, sort of (page 9).
4. If one use is permitted, others must be, also (page 12).
5. Can regulate but not prohibit (page 13).
6. Can regulate but not less strictly than the state (page 13).

Appendix A, on page 14, lists a few commonly believed things to be exempt from zoning, but they are subject to zoning. Appendix B, on page 15, reproduces the Michigan Supreme Court and Michigan Appeals Court guidelines to aid courts to determine if state statute preempts zoning. Appendix C, on page 16, reports the history of this Land Use Series updates over time.

(This footnote used to cite the following acts, each repealed as of July 1, 2006: P.A. 183 of 1943, as amended (the County Zoning Act, M.C.L. 125.201 et seq.); P.A. 184 of 1943, as amended (the Township Zoning Act, M.C.L. 125.271 et seq.); P.A. 207 of 1921, as amended (the City and Village Zoning Act, M.C.L. 125.581 et seq.).)
1. General rules

A. The zoning enabling acts require consideration of all legitimate land uses:

“A zoning ordinance or zoning decision shall not have the effect of totally prohibiting the establishment of a land use within a local unit of government in the presence of a demonstrated need for that land use within either that local unit of government or the surrounding area within the state, unless a location within the local unit of government does not exist where the use may be appropriately located or the use is unlawful.”

B. Local zoning must allow the continuation of a nonconforming use and expansion of a nonconforming use (existing building or use of land that lawfully existed prior to zoning or prior to the zoning amendment). However, the ordinance can provide for reasonable terms for restoration, reconstruction, extension, substitution, and acquiring of nonconforming uses that may limit their life span.

C. Local zoning cannot constitute a taking, which occurs if a regulation requires or permits physical invasion by others onto private property or is so sweeping that it, in effect, takes away all economically viable use of land.

D. Zoning must provide for due process of law and must provide equal protection of all persons affected by the laws.

2. Outright preemption

Outright preemption occurs if the regulation of a particular land use is reserved to the state – that is, it “occupies the field.” The Michigan Supreme Court set forth four guidelines to aid courts in determining whether a statute occupies the field of regulation. See Appendix B, on page 15, for more detail on this.

A. Local zoning cannot regulate the location or operation of hazardous waste disposal and/or storage facilities. (It is probably acceptable to regulate fencing and haul routes if approved by the state siting board.)

B. Local zoning cannot regulate the location or operation of solid waste facilities such as...
landfills and incinerators. (It is probably acceptable to regulate fencing and haul routes if included in the county solid waste management plan.)

C. Local zoning cannot regulate utility (power) lines.10

D. Local zoning cannot regulate wind energy power transmission lines11 within Primary and other Wind Energy Resource Zones established by order of the Michigan Public Service Commission, if a Expedited Siting Certificate for a transmission line is issued to a public utility by the Public Service Commission. Wind Energy Resource Zones do not include areas zoned residential at the time of the designation.

E. Local zoning cannot regulate pipelines that are regulated by the Michigan Public Service Commission.12

F. Local zoning (and state and local government) cannot regulate railroads.13

G. Local zoning cannot regulate state prisons and public correctional facilities including halfway houses.14 Private facilities can be regulated.

H. Township and county zoning cannot regulate oil and gas wells, exploration, and operation of the wellhead site16 (but it can be regulated off-site.) A flowline (pipeline) which is part of the operation of a well is also not subject to local regulation.17 An exception to not regulating oil and gas wells is that local regulation can occur if 12The public service commission has the power and jurisdiction to hear and pass upon all matters pertaining to, necessary, or incident to the regulation of public utilities, except for railroads and railroad companies. (Some additional (non-zoning) regulatory powers rest with cities.) Section 4 and 6 of P.A. 3 of 1939, as amended, (being the Michigan Public Service Commission Act, M.C.L. 460.4 and 460.6). 17There are different types of pipelines. For a flowline (pipeline) from an oil or gas well connecting them together, and maybe up to a compression plant (gas), and/or up to the first point of sale (e.g., the meter from which royalty payments are calculated for those oil/gas wells), the Supervisor of Wells has exclusive jurisdiction. But there is dispute over how far the flowline from the well might go.

A local government may have some jurisdiction over a pipeline from the point of sale, or ‘downstream’ from the in-field processing (e.g., a compression plant (gas)) that goes to the market point.

Third are pipelines which are under the regulation of the Michigan Public Service Commission, see “pipelines” on page 3.
zoning is for a designated “natural river.”

I. Local zoning cannot regulate surface coal mining and reclamation operations. An exception is that this regulation can occur if zoning is for a designated natural river.

J. State water pollution regulations occupy the field for both point and nonpoint sources of pollution.

K. Regulations about farms/farming are severely restricted by the Right To Farm Act. To determine what can, and cannot, be regulated locally is a two part thought process. First is the land use going to fall under the Right To Farm Act (RTFA), that is, is it a farm or agriculture? Start by asking these questions:

• Is it a “farm operation”? Is it producing “farm products?” Is it commercial?

If the answer is “yes” to each of these above then it applies under the RTFA. If one of the answer(s) is “no” then that land use on that parcel can be regulated by local ordinance.

If all three are “yes”, then second, is to determine what local regulations are preempted and which local regulations can still be enforced. If the topic of the regulation is already covered in the RTFA or in any of the published Generally Accepted Agricultural Management Practices (GAAMP), then local government cannot regulate it. If the topic is not in RTFA and not in any of the GAAMPs, then local regulation can still apply. Topics in RTFA, and thus off limits for local regulation are:

• Anything about a farmer’s liability in a public or private nuisance lawsuit.
• Anything about enforcement or investigation process for complaints involving agriculture.
• The conversion from one or more farm operation activities to other farm operation activities.

However, GAAMPs cover a much larger range of topics and an effort is made to keep GAAMPs up-to-date with the most current science-based best practices for farm operations. Usually in January or February of each year, the Commission is adopting updated versions of the GAAMPs.

Local zoning of agriculture cannot

23 Farm means any activity that produces a farm product via a farm operation which is commercial, as defined in the Right To Farm Act, M.C.L. 286.472. (There is no minimum amount of commercial required, and farm operation does not have to be within what one commonly thinks of as a traditional farm.)

extend, revise or conflict with provisions of the Right to Farm Act or any generally accepted agricultural and management practices (GAAMPs)\textsuperscript{29}, including:

\item Manure management and utilization.
\item Pesticide utilization and pest control.
\item Nutrient utilization.
\item Care of farm animals.
\item Cranberry production.

\textsuperscript{29}Section 4(6) of Act 93 of 1981, as amended (the Michigan Right to Farm Act, M.C.L. 286.474(6)) and respective Michigan Department of Agriculture adopted generally accepted agricultural and management practices (GAAMPs).

\textsuperscript{30}The GAAMP sets forth that a farm market is an ‘area’ where transactions between a farm market operator and customers take place (not necessarily but might be a building). At least 50 percent of the products marketed/offered for sale (measured over a five year timeframe) must be from the affiliated farm. The ‘50 percent’ is measured by use of floor space.

The farm market must be ‘affiliated’ with a farm, meaning a farm under the same ownership or control (e.g., leased) as the farm market, but does not have to be located on the same property where the farm production occurs. The market must be located on land where local land use zoning allows for agriculture and its related activities.

Marketing is part of a farm market, and can include Community Supported Agriculture (CSA), U-Pick operations (also known as pick your own (PYO)), and associated activities and services to attract and entertain customers (e.g., cooking demonstrations, corn mazes, tours, fishing pond, hay rides, horseback riding, petting farms, picnic areas, etcetera (a much longer list is in the GAAMP)). Services to attract and entertain customers are subject to local zoning ordinances, state, federal laws, and associated rules and regulations.

If in a building/structure, the structure must comply with the Stille-Derosset-Hale Single State Construction Code Act (MCL 125.1501 et seq.) and placement of the structure shall comply with local zoning, including set-backs from property lines and right-of-ways. Parking may be on grass, gravel, or pavement; one vehicle parking space for every 200 sq. ft. of interior retail space or 1,000 sq. ft. of outdoor activity space. Driveways must have an Michigan Department of Transportation (MDOT), county road commission, or village/city street agency permits. Signs outside the farm market must comply with sign regulations of MDOT, and all applicable local regulations. External lighting must comply with all applicable local, state, and federal regulations for lighting outside the farm market.

All details in the GAAMP are not covered, above. See also Section 2(b)(i) of Act 93 of 1981, as amended, (the Michigan Right to Farm Act, M.C.L. 286.472(b)(i)).
designated in the Farm Markets GAAMPs (or not considered as part of the Farm Market GAAMPs).

There are far more nuances to all this, including unsettled case law as to if a GAAMPs can delegate back regulatory authority that is preempted by state statute.

If a local government submits its ordinance on farm/agriculture, showing that adverse effects on the environment or public health will exist within the local government without the ordinance, to the Michigan Department of Agriculture and the Michigan Agricultural Commission approves the ordinance then those local regulations may apply.31

P. Local zoning cannot regulate any part of the Michigan State Police radio communication system.37 The statute provides for the State Police to notify the local zoning authority of the proposed facility, and a 30 day period where the zoning authority can issue a special use permit or propose an alternative location. If the special use permit is not issued within 30 days, or the alternative location does not meet siting requirements the state police can proceed with the first proposed site.

S. Activities of a federally recognized Native American (Indian) tribal government within trust lands or within “Indian country” are not subject to local zoning. (Tribal zoning, if any, does have jurisdiction.)

T. Public Schools under the jurisdiction of the Michigan superintendent of public instruction are not subject to local zoning.

U. Certain public colleges and universities are not subject to local zoning.

V. A municipality that adopts a zoning ordinance need not follow its own ordinance. The court case establishing this preemption is specifically interpreting the City and Village Zoning Act, but the language the court used suggests this concept might also apply to a township or county. This preemption is only for a government’s own zoning ordinance. A city, township, and village government must comply with another government’s zoning ordinance.

W. County buildings owned and built/located by a county board of commissioners is not subject to zoning in so much as the county has the power to determine “the site of, remove, or to designate a new site

41. Brendale v. Confederated Tribes and Bands of the Yakima Indian Nation et al, 492 US 408 (1989) addressed zoning jurisdiction in a checkerboarded ownership pattern area. This case was appealed. The U.S. Supreme Court combined the case with others before hearing it. The Supreme Court case, also involving the Crow Tribe in Montana v. United States, 450 US 544 (1981), further modified the Brendale decision to say ‘fee’ lands and ‘trust’ lands are different. Trust lands are zoned by the tribal Ogema (government).

The tribe also retains its zoning authority over non-Indian members in portions of a reservation where only a few, isolated parcels had been alienated and the tribe’s power to determine that area’s essential character remains intact. The tribe does not have zoning authority within a reservation in an area predominantly owned and populated by non-Indian members because such an area has lost its character as an exclusive tribal resource. The issue becomes where the lines—boundary—for these areas are drawn. Thus resolution of where tribe or municipality jurisdiction exists is decided in court.

The court requires a case-by-case review to settle the issue of zoning jurisdiction, arguing it is impossible to articulate precise rules that will govern when tribal zoning or municipal/county zoning has jurisdiction.

for a county building,” and to erect “the necessary buildings for jails, clerks’ offices, and other county buildings...”

A county’s power under the CCA “is limited to the siting of county buildings.” The court case establishing this preemption involved a county building and township zoning, but the language used by the court suggests the county is exempt from city and village zoning as well. Ancillary land uses indispensable to the building’s normal use (not other types of land uses) are also not subject to zoning. But a county has no authority to establish a principal land use (with or without ancillary building(s)).

Local governments cannot implement regulations that are more stringent than those of the state for the interior design of mobile (manufactured) home parks or standards related to the business, sales, and service practices of mobile home dealers, mobile home installers and repairers (unless the local regulation has been approved by the Michigan Manufactured Home Commission).

B. Local government cannot regulate activities of the U.S. government on land owned by the federal government (although privately-owned facilities leased by the federal government can be regulated). Federal government must “consider” local regulations and follow them to “the maximum extent feasible.” It must also follow requirements for landscaping, open space, minimum distance, maximum height, historic preservation and esthetic qualities, but it is not required to obtain a permit. A federal instrumentality (where a federal government function is being done by a private entity) is also immune from any state law or local regulation directly inhibiting the purpose (and only its purpose).

C. Local governments cannot implement regulations about nonferrous metallic mineral mining (nonferrous metallic sulfide deposits) that duplicate, contradict, or conflict with part 632 of the Natural Resources and Environmental Protection Act. In carrying out its Federal functions, neither the United States nor its agencies are subject to state or local regulations absent a clear statutory waiver to the contrary. This concept is based upon the Supremacy Clause of the United States Constitution which states, in part, that it and the laws of the United States are the “supreme law of the land.” (U.S. Constitution, Article VI, cl.2.)

It is a “seminal principal” of law that the United States Constitution and the laws made pursuant to it are supreme. Hancock v. Train, 426 U.S. 167, 178.

“(It) is of the very essence of supremacy to remove all obstacles to its action within its own sphere, and so to modify every power vested in subordinate governments, as to exempt its own operations from their own influence.” Hancock, 426 U.S. 167,178 (McCulloch v. Maryland, 4 Wheat. 316, 426 (1819)). Sovereign immunity means that where “Congress does not affirmatively declare its instrumentalities or property subject to regulation,” “the federal function must be left free” of regulation. Id. (Mayo v. United States, 319 U.S. 441, 447-48).

D. Local zoning can regulate only certain specific aspects of extraction (mining) of natural resources (e.g., gravel, sand and similar pits).\textsuperscript{60} Zoning cannot prevent extraction of natural resources unless "very serious consequences"\textsuperscript{61} would occur. Regulations can include government’s reasonable regulation of hours of operation, blasting hours, noise levels, dust control measures, and traffic (not preempted by the nonferrous metallic mineral mining part of the Natural Resources and Environmental Protection Act\textsuperscript{62}). Such regulation shall be reasonable in accommodating customary mining operations. Extraction of minerals supercedes surface rights. (Oil and gas and coal mining can not be regulated, see 2H and 2I.) Further regulation of mineral extraction might be acceptable if the zoning is for a designated natural river.

E. Wireless communication antenna\textsuperscript{63} and towers local regulation is preempted, in part by the Federal Communications Act, court cases, and Michigan Zoning Enabling Act. In summary: cannot unreasonably discriminate between different provider companies\textsuperscript{64}; "[t]he regulation of the placement, construction, and modification of personal wireless service facilities . . . shall not prohibit or have the effect of prohibiting the provision of personal wireless services\textsuperscript{65}; regulations cannot be based on "environmental effects of radio frequency emissions to the extent that such facilities comply with the [FCC]'s regulations. . . ."\textsuperscript{66}; applications must be acted on within a certain deadlines and decisions shall “be in writing and supported by substantial evidence contained in a written record\textsuperscript{67} as well as following deadline requirements of local ordinance (if any) and the Michigan Zoning Enabling Act\textsuperscript{68}; anyone harmed by a decision to deny a wireless facility permit can bring the issue to court, and the court must hear and rule on the case in an expedited manner\textsuperscript{69}; state or local government must allow certain types of expansion of existing wireless facilities\textsuperscript{70}; arguments concerning the impacts of property values must be documented by an expert, testifying on the record who has conducted a study of the specific site; and Michigan requires most applications for wireless facilities to be a permitted use in the local zoning ordinance with two exceptions as well as state decision deadlines.

F. Regulation that (1) unreasonably delay or prevent installation, maintenance or use; (2) unreasonably increase the cost of installation, maintenance or use; or (3) preclude reception of an acceptable quality signal of customer-end antennas to receive signals (e.g., “dish” antenna one meter or less in diameter, direct-to-home satellite service, receive or transmit fixed wireless signals, video programming via broadband radio service (wireless cable) and wireless signals, and antenna designed to receive local television broadcasts). Clearly-defined local regulation exclusively for safety (e.g., securely fastened down), historic site protection are exceptions, and may be locally regulated. This does not apply to local AM/FM radio reception antennas, satellite, wireless, WiFi, broadband, amateur “ham” radio, CB radio, Digital Audio Radio Services “DARS” antennas.

G. A local unit of government is limited to regulate the hours of use of fireworks so long as the regulation does not apply to the day of, preceding, or after a national holiday. (If a municipality with 50,000 or more population in a county with 750,000 or more population may regulate fireworks between midnight and 8am on New Year’s day. If a municipality with less than 50,000 population in a county with less than 750,000 population may regulate fireworks between 1am and 8am on New Year’s day.) A local unit of government is limited to regulate fireworks sale, display, storage, transportation or distribution which are regulated under the Michigan Fireworks Safety Act in a manner that is only incidental. But the Fireworks Safety Act leaves open the door to limited regulation so long as that regulation does contravene the state law and the local ordinance is incidental because it applies its regulations to any and all retail operations, and fireworks sales are not treated any differently than all other retail enterprises. It may also be that local ordinances cannot regulate novelties.

which are aeronautical uses are exempt from zoning, though non-aeronautical uses of such an airport are subject to zoning. This may not apply to other types of public or private airports. I. An amateur radio service station antenna structure may be erected at heights and dimensions sufficient to accommodate amateur radio service communications. Regulation amateur radio antenna must not preclude amateur radio service communications and reasonably accommodate and be the minimum practicable regulation to accomplish local government’s purpose. If near an airport federal code and more than 60.96 meters (200 feet) tall must notify the federal aviation administration and register with the federal communications commission.

4. If one use is permitted, others must be, also
A. If land is zoned “residential” of a specified density, then the ordinance must provide for a cluster (open space) type of development.
B. In zoning districts where dwellings are permitted, the ordinance must also allow:
   - Mobile homes.
   - State-licensed residential facilities for six or fewer persons.
   - Home occupation for instruction in a craft or fine art (e.g., music lessons).
   - “Family day-care home” and “group day-care home” (e.g., child daycare facilities) in counties and townships. (Cities and villages can regulate these by special use permit.)
C. If land is zoned to allow farms, or farms are allowed as a nonconforming use then a biofuel production facility that produces 100,000 or less gallons of biofuel shall be a permitted use on a farm subject to certain conditions. A biofuel production facility of more than 100,000 but not more than 500,000 gallons of biofuel shall be a possible special use on a farm subject to certain conditions.
5. Can regulate but not prohibit

A. Signs can be regulated so long as the regulation is not dependent on (does not regulate) the content of the sign. Also, sign regulation just for aesthetic purposes can be problematic.

There are many, and complex, additional limitations on sign regulation (for example limited or no regulation of signs via zoning in a road right-of-way, and constrains of regulation (also shared with the Michigan Department of Highway) in highway right-of-ways. See Michigan Sign Guidebook, Scenic Michigan, December 2011, in particular table 7-2 on pages 7-13 and 7-14.

C. Local zoning cannot limit religious activities/land uses in any terms that differ from those for other assemblies and nonreligious activities/land uses, nor can they interfere with religious activity.

D. Adult entertainment or sexually oriented businesses can be regulated but not totally excluded.

E. Existing shooting ranges (gun clubs) can continue after zoning is changed to prohibit or further regulate the range.

F. Local ordinance can regulate, but not prohibit the raising or possessing marijuana for medical purposes which is allowed under the Michigan Medical Marihuana Act.

6. Can regulate but not less strictly than the state

A. Local air pollution regulations must be at least as strict as those of the state.

Regulations that relate only to “time, place or manner” (e.g., regulations that are “content-neutral”) must meet court rules set down in United States v. O’Brien, 391 US 367 (1968): (1) furthers an important or substantial governmental interest, (2) is unrelated to the suppression of speech, and (3) limits speech no more than necessary to protect whatever 1st Amendment interests are involved.

COMMUNELY BELIEVED TO BE EXEMPT FROM ZONING

Items subject to zoning

There are some prevailing misunderstandings which have lead some to believe the following activities are exempt, or not subject to zoning. However in fact these activities are subject to zoning:

1. Michigan Department of Natural Resources boat launches (and by extension other state park and state forest land uses).

2. Private schools and other schools which are not under the jurisdiction of the Michigan superintendent of public instruction.

Restrictions on Zoning Authority
Michigan State University Extension Land Use Series
Appendix B.

The following court case is instructive in determining if a state statute preempts local zoning.
Court: Michigan Court of Appeals (Unpublished No. 248702)
Case Name: Salamey v. Dexter Twp. Zoning Bd. of Appeals

Based on the plain language of MCL 324.21109 and the ordinance, the court rejected plaintiff’s argument the ordinance was preempted because it was in direct conflict with Natural Resources and Environmental Protection Act (NREPA), and the court further held NREPA did not preempt the ordinance by virtue of completely occupying the field the ordinance attempted to regulate.

Plaintiff appealed from the trial court’s order affirming the zoning board of appeals’ (ZBA) decision denying plaintiff’s request for a conditional use permit to operate a gas station in an area zoned a “General Commercial District.” Plaintiff contended NREPA preempted local regulation of the installation and use of underground storage tanks (UST) systems, and the ZBA’s decision was not supported by competent, material, and substantial evidence. The court concluded MCL 324.21109 neither expressly permits, nor prohibits, operation of a gas station in a general commercial district and the ordinance did not strictly regulate USTs – rather, it promulgated rules for the operation of automobile service stations. NREPA also did not preempt municipal regulation under the facts presented when the record showed various factors other than the installation of the UST system were legitimate reasons for denial of the permit. In addition, the court held the record demonstrated there was competent, material, and substantial evidence supporting the denial of the permit. Affirmed.

Quoting, on the issue of state law preemption:

“State law preempts a municipal ordinance where “1) the statute completely occupies the field that ordinance attempts to regulate, or 2) the ordinance directly conflicts with a state statute.” Michigan Coalition for Responsible Gun Owners, supra, 256 Mich App 408, quoting Rental Prop Owners Ass’n of Kent Co v Grand Rapids, 455 Mich 246, 257; 566 NW2d 514 (1997). Regarding the second method of preemption set forth above, our Supreme Court has held that “[a] direct conflict exists . . . when the ordinance permits what the statute prohibits or the ordinance prohibits what the statute permits.” People v Llewellyn (City of East Detroit v Llewellyn), 401 Mich 314, 322 n 4; 257 NW2d 902 (1977).

“According to MCL 324.21109(3) of NREPA, a local unit of government “shall not enact or enforce a provision of an ordinance that requires a permit, . . . [or] approval . . . for the installation, use, closure, or removal of an underground storage tank system.” The act further provides that a local unit of government “shall not enact or enforce a provision of an ordinance that is inconsistent with this part or rules promulgated under this part.” M.C.L. 324.21109(2). Under the township zoning ordinance at issue in the instant case, Section 13.01(D)(5), Art XIII of the Dexter Township zoning ordinance requires a special approval use permit in order for the ZBA to permit an “automobile service station” in a general commercial district.

“Plaintiff contends that, because the township zoning ordinance requires plaintiff to obtain a special approval use permit in order to operate a gas station, i.e., a facility with an underground storage tank system, NREPA preempts that section of the zoning ordinance. This argument is not persuasive in light of the plain language of MCL 324.21109 1 and the plain language of the ordinance. Clearly, M.C.L. 324.21109 of NREPA neither expressly permits nor prohibits the operation of a gas station in a general commercial district. And, Section 13.01(D)(5), Art XIII of the Dexter Township zoning ordinance does not strictly regulate underground storage tanks, but rather promulgates rules for the operation of an automobile service station.

“ ... “Our Supreme Court set forth four guidelines to aid courts in determining whether a statute occupies the field of regulation:

First, where the state law expressly provides that the state’s authority to regulate in a specified area of the law is to be exclusive, there is no doubt that municipal regulation is preempted.

Second, preemption of a field of regulation may be implied upon an examination of legislative history.

Third, the pervasiveness of the state regulatory scheme may support a finding of preemption. While the pervasiveness of the state regulatory scheme is not generally sufficient by itself to infer preemption, it is a factor which should be considered as evidence of preemption.

Fourth, the nature of the regulated subject matter may demand exclusive state regulation to achieve the uniformity may demand exclusive state regulation to achieve the uniformity necessary to serve the state’s purpose or interest.”

- June 26, 2008: Added more detail about county building exemption from zoning as a result of Herman v. County of Berrien (Published No. 134097, June 18, 2008) Michigan Supreme Court.
- October 8, 2008:
  - added further discussion on federal supremacy concerning zoning not having jurisdiction over federal activities.
  - added wind energy power transmission lines as a result of M.C.L. 460.1001 et seq.
  - December 10, 2008:
    - added farm market discussion.
    - television reception antennas
    - Added Appendix A. List of items which are subject to zoning, but confusions results in some believing the land use is exempt from zoning.
  - February 11, 2009: Added appendix B.
  - April 3, 2009: Added halfway houses operated by the Michigan Department of Corrections.
  - August 7, 2009: Moved “farming” from “Preemption, Sort of” to “Outright Preemption” and revised text.
  - January 18, 2010: Added “farm market” to list of GAAMPS.
  - July 19, 2010: Removed from “5. Can Regulate, but Not Prohibit” the following text:
    Local zoning can regulate extraction (mining) of natural resources (e.g., gravel, sand and similar pits), but this does not include coal, oil and gas. Zoning can not prevent extraction of natural resources unless “very serious consequences” would occur. Regulations can include time limits for mining and reclamation. Extraction of minerals supercedes surface rights. (Oil and gas and coal mining can not be regulated, see 2H and 2I.) Further regulation of mineral extraction might be acceptable if the zoning is for a designated natural river.
    This was removed as a result of Kyser v. Kasson Twp., July 15, 2010.

- July 14, 2011: Added nonferrous metallic mineral mining.
